

Carl DuPont

carldupont@gmail.com

386.212.5545

Experience

African-American Arts Institute of Indiana University

Associate Instructor, 2007-present

- Organized rehearsals with two smaller groups of contemporary gospel groups and actively approached, recruited, and auditioned new members.
- While reporting to the Dean of the Institute, taught contemporary gospel music, traditional Negro spirituals, and healthy vocalization in addition to time management skills.

First Christian Church of Martinsville

Choir Director, 2006- present

- Hired, scheduled and rehearsed all auxiliary musicians for special services, and often served as advisor for all musical matters of the church.
- Chose and taught a nine-month choir season and was responsible for creating a searchable database of all the Music in the Choir Library for future directors.

Office of Student life, Eastman School of Music

Resident Advisor, 2004-2006

- Ensured a safe living and working environment for the students in the residence hall by enforcing drug and alcohol rules, as well as counseling students in personal and academic crisis situations.
- Responsible for hiring additional staff members through a rigorous application process.
- Planned seasonal events for a 500-person dormitory with an international population.

Education

Indiana University

2008

- Master of Music, cognate in Italian
- Awards: Jacobs Fellowship, Performers' Certificate, Audience Favorite Award

Eastman School of Music (University of Rochester)

2006

- Bachelor of Music
- Awards: Graduated with High Distinction, Performers' Certificate, William Warfield Scholar, Link's Scholar, Howard Hanson Scholarship, Arthur Assum Award

Skills

- Microsoft Office (2003 & 2007: Word, Excel, Powerpoint, Outlook)
- Speak, read and write in Italian, French, German, and Spanish
- Public Speaking

Other Activities

- Spent a summer in Brazil to help build homes and shelters
- Avid runner currently training for Marathon in Indianapolis
- Volunteer at local assisted living facilities/ centers for the blind on holidays