Objective

A teaching position that will give me the opportunity to use my experience and creativity to establish a positive learning environment that allows my students to excel.

Education and Recognition

* 2009 Completed the 135-hour TEFL course through the Tennessee Foreign Language Institute. This course included extensive class work and field teaching. My teaching practicum was completed at the Sudanese Refugee center in Nashville, where I taught a beginner's English class to adult Africans.

* 2002 B.A. History, Hendrix College, Conway, AR USA. Hendrix is a small, private liberal arts school whose emphasis is on creating well-rounded graduates with a broad educational background.

* 1997 Granted rank of Eagle Scout, Boy Scouts of America. The Scouts taught me leadership skills and instilled a core of values based around honesty, integrity, and service.

Skills

- * Writing comprehensive lesson plans
- * Managing a multilingual classroom
- * Creating original games and activities for English learning
- * Evaluating student's needs
- * Clearly communicating new ideas in an EFL framework

Work Experience

I have extensive experience in the restaurant industry, usually in positions where I have dealt directly with the public and had to communicate clearly with people from many regions of North America. My current employer is the Nashville City Club, 201 4th Ave N 20th Floor, Nashville, TN 37219. Call (615) 244-3693 for a reference, please ask for Jim Wisniewski.
