Work Experience

Freelance Tutoring (San Diego, USA / Tijuana, MX) Part-Time
Visitor Service Associate April 2009-September 2009

- ✓ Main duties are to meet with students at home or a library to help them with various subjects ranging from reading and math to religious studies courses, philosophy, and college-level writing.

Incheon English Village (Incheon, South Korea) Contract
English Teacher April 2008 to April 2009

- ✓ Taught English as a second language to Korean elementary school children.
- ✓ Wrote my own lesson plans and curriculums for specialized, super-advanced/master-level English courses for weekend programs.
- ✓ I was part of a crucial curriculum overhaul at the English Village where I and group of teachers re-invented and re-wrote curriculum and teaching techniques. I was also in charge of supervising and help orient new and in-coming teachers whom, in most cases, had no prior teaching experience.

AmeriCorps (San Diego, USA) Contract
Community Service Organizer, Tutor, Camp Leader March to December 2006

- ✓ Worked for many organizations under the AmeriCorps programs
- ✓ Spent most of my contract working for the Borderview YMCA in which I became an after school program tutor in an Elementary School setting and then a camp leader in the summer.
- ✓ Implementing new personal teaching and tutoring techniques for "under-privileged" elementary school children was a critical must as was overall children supervision, interaction, and planning/coordinating activities, field trips, and arts and crafts.

Colegio Biblico Apostolico Nacional (Mexico) Part-Time
January to December 2005

- ✓ Developed curriculum based around faith-based, theological teaching. At the age of 21, I became the youngest staffed teacher of the Seminary.
- ✓ Again, building and writing my own lessons and curriculum was a must. Interacting with students older than me provided me with added sensitivity and experience for teaching adults as i commenced my teaching career.

Activities and Interests

Music I am a drummer. I've played for choirs across Tijuana and some places in the central portions of Mexico (Cuernavaca and Guadalajara). I also taught drum lessons for a year and I managed to build a class of 10 students ranging in ages from 6-10. For a brief period I was a member of the Kappa Kappa Psi fraternity at SDSU.

Literature/Writing I am a freelance writer/translator/editor/tutor. I write poetry, short stories, and have contributed to translating books from English to Spanish and vice versa. I am also able to do my own creative writing in both languages.

Traveling Mexico, United States, Chile, Peru, South Korea, North Korea, China, Thailand, Hong Kong
