

Christopher M. Ricci

1100 Geoglein Gulch Rd #122, Durango, CO 81301 (719) 238-0563 cmricci@fortlewis.edu

Objective To obtain a challenging career with room for growth and prosperity

Education Fort Lewis College, Durango, CO; Bachelor of Arts Degree

- Major: Accounting
- Minor: Marketing
- GPA: 3.84 Suma Cum Laude
- 150 credit hours
- Beta Gamma Sigma member
- Phi Kappa Phi member

Scuola di Amministrazione Aziendale (SAA), Torino, Italy; spring 2007

- International business/marketing
- Certificate of Excellence (English tutoring of Italian students)

Involvement

- President of FLC Climbing Club for two years
- Member of the volunteer La Plata County Search and Rescue
- Volunteer at the Durango Children's Museum
- Local recreation sports – soccer, ultimate Frisbee, golf
- Kayaking, rock climbing, backpacking, mountain biking, skiing/snowboarding

Customer Service

Francisco's Restaurant Y Cantina; Durango, CO
June 2007 – August 2007

- Worked for customers to provide friendly, timely service

Home Depot; started in Monument, CO; transferred to Durango, CO
June 2005 – January 2006

- Inventory maintenance through forklift operations and manual observations
- Customer service and problem solving for different building projects
- Service to management to achieve tasks that required attention

Managerial Experience

Jim Beam Framing; Colorado Springs, CO
December 2004 – May 2005

- Searched out and delegated work amongst seven framing crews
- Worked with contractors and building supervisors to meet deadlines
- Made sure crews had supplies necessary to complete work

References furnished upon request